LEADERSHIP ANNOUNCEMENT

Minister Creecy has appointed, effective 01 January 2026, Dr Langa Dlamini as the Acting Chief Executive of the Ports Regulator.

Dr. Dlamini is an admitted attorney with over 20 years of practice experience, primarily focused on shipping and international trade, and joined the Regulator as the Executive Manager: Legal in 2025. He previously served as the Executive Manager: Maritime at the Moses Kotane Institute and as long-standing facilitator within the Maritime Economics Department at the University of Kwa Zulu Natal. In addition, he has served as the Tribunal Chairperson for the Financial Services Conduct Authority (previously known as the FSB).

His work in both academia and the legal sector has resulted in a balanced approach to regulation treading the path between theory and good practice, and the practical day-to-day elements of regulation, all with a focus on the nuances of the maritime world.

The Members of the Regulator offer their unwavering support to the Acting CE and remain committed to executing the mandate of the Regulator and as well as the vision, mission, and commitment to South Africa.

The Ports Regulator was established under the provisions of the National Ports Act, 2005.
Its vision is to be regarded nationally and internationally as a world class institution which sets the standards for economic regulation in maritime ports.
